

Montenegro
Ministry of Culture

Creative
Europe

GREEN CULTURE, A SUSTAINABLE WAY TO AN ECOLOGICAL COUNTRY

CREATIVE EUROPE PROJECTS IN THE CONTEXT OF ECOLOGY AND ART

Ministry of Culture of Montenegro

Friday, 22 January 2016

10:00 – 10:15

Introduction

Moderator: Ms. Ana Savjak, Creative Europe Desk
Montenegro

Creative Europe and creative ecology: Programme strategy and priorities

10:15 – 10:45

Miss Amanda Rosso, Green Culture Project Coordinator at NGO
Krug, International Centre for Sustainable Cultural Collaboration

What is Green Culture? The Vision, the Mission, the Goals

10:45 – 11:30

Mr. Christoph Jankowski, Head of Culture, England, Creative Europe, UK

Presenting the most successful Creative Europe green projects and guide to creating successful partnerships achieving environmental sustainability in the cultural field

11:30 – 12:00

Ms. Zenepa Lika, Deputy Mayor, Municipality of Ulcinj

Green Culture Fest and Conference, the potential and the local experience

12:00 – 12:30

Coffee break

12:30 – 13:00 Ms. Milica Perišić, Secretary General, Foundation Petrović, Njegoš
Developing the Green Culture Network, Working with the local communities and cultural organisations and presenting the forthcoming Green Culture Forum following the Green Culture Fest and Conference

13:00 – 13:15 Mr. Boris Abramović, Head of Network, Anna Lindh Foundation Montenegro

Green culture projects and sustainability in the Euro-Med

13:15 – 13:45 Ms. Ana Savjak

A brief overview of the EU calls suitable for green cultural projects and conclusions

13:45 – 14:15 Networking